STATE OF MICHIGAN, Seventh Judicial Circuit,
In Chancery.

John Nelson, Complainant, vs. Lovina Nelson, Defendant.

Suit pending in the Circuit Court for the County of Shiawassee, at Corunna, on the 25th day of April A. D. 1887.

In this cause it appearing from affidavit on file, that the Defendant, Lovina Nelson, has departed from her last known place of residence, in the State of Michigan, and that service of process from this Court cannot be had on her, on motion of Percy Edwards, solicitor for Complainant, it is ordered that the said Lovina Nelson cause her appearance to be entered herein within five months from the date of this order, and in case of her appearance that she cause her answer to the Complainant's bill of complaint to be filed and a copy thereof to be served on said solicitor of Complainant within twenty days after service on her of a copy of said bill and notice of this order. In default thereof, said bill will be taken as confessed by said Defendant.

And it is further ordered, That within twenty days of this date the Complainant cause a notice of this order to be published in THE TIMES, a newspaper printed, published and circulating in said County, and that said publication be continued therein once in each week for six successive weeks.

WILLIAM NEWTON,
Percy Edwards, Circuit Judge,
Solicitor for Complainant.

In Memoriam.

William Bateman died at his home Sunday, April 24th, 1887, aged 34 years. Services were held at the residence on Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, conducted by Rev. J. Donnelly. He leaves a wife and one son to mourn his loss. He was the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Bateman.

We desire through the columns of your paper to express our heartfelt thanks to our friends and neighbors for their kind assistance during our sad bereavement.

MRS. IDA BATEMAN,
FRANK BATEMAN.

Death of Johnson Fockler.

From the Detroit Free Press of Tuesday we clip the following:

Sunday night a well-dressed, gentlemanly-appearing man registered at the Wabash hotel, opposite the Brush street depot, as Richard Fockler. He was assigned to a room and went to bed. When the chambermaids made their rounds yesterday morning they found the door of the room occupied by the stranger locked, and repeated-knocks failed to elicit any response. At 5 o'clock last evening the room was forced open. The man was found lying on the bed face down, and the servant girl thoroughly frightened screamed to the clerk. The latter went up stairs, and on investigation found that the man was dead. Coroner Keefe was called and on investigation found that the man was dead.

Coroner Keefe was called and took charge of the deceased's effects. He found in the pockets of the dead man's clothing $7.77 in cash, a letter from a sister of the deceased, addressed "Johnson Fockler" and signed "Rachel Brown," a bunch of keys and check with the inscription, "Dick Fockler, Owosso, Michigan," together with a couple of ancient copper coins.

The Coroner had one of the city physicians examine the body, and the result of the examination was that the man died either of apoplexy or heart disease.

Coroner Keefe impounded a jury and adjourned the inquest to Wednesday morning.

The man was about 28 years old. The body will be held awaiting orders from relatives who have been notified.

Mr. Fockler came to Owosso about two years ago from Corunna and started in the building owned by P. Waters. Here he continued until about two months ago when he sold out. He was buried in Canada at his old home.

Spring Medicine

When the weather grows warmer, that extreme tired feeling, want of appetite, dulness, languor, and lassitude, afflict almost the entire human family, and scrofula and other diseases caused by humors, manifest themselves with many. It is impossible to throw off this debility and expel humors from the blood without the aid of a reliable medicine like Hood's Sarsaparilla. "I could not sleep, and would get up in the morning with hardly life enough to get out of bed. I had no appetite, and my face would break out with pimples. I bought

At no other season is the system so susceptible to the beneficial effects of a reliable tonic and invigorant. The impure state of the blood, the deranged digestion, and the weak condition of the body, caused by its long battle with the cold, wintry blasts, all call for the reviving, regulating and restoring influences so happily and effectively combined in Hood's Sarsaparilla. "Hood's Sarsaparilla did me a great deal of good. I had no particular disease, but was tired out from overwork, and it toned me up." Mrs. G. E. SIMMONS, Cohoes, N. Y.

a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and soon began to sleep soundly; could get up without that tired and languid feeling, and my appetite improved." B. A. SANFORD, Kent, O. "I had been much troubled by general debility. Last spring Hood's Sarsaparilla proved just the thing needed. I derived an immense amount of benefit. I never felt better." H. F. MILLET, Boston, Mass.

"For seven years, spring and fall, I had scrofulous sores come out on my legs, and for two years was not free from them at all. I suffered very much. Last May I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, and before I had taken two bottles, the sores healed and the humor left me." G. A. ARNOLD, Arnold, Me. "There is no blood purifier equal to Hood's Sarsaparilla." E. S. PHILLIPS, Rochester, N. Y.

W. J. McDonald

In returning thanks to you for my miraculous cure of eczema or salt rheum, I deem it advisable to give you a detailed account of my case, and as there is, and always will be a prejudice against advertised remedies, you have my permission to publish this testimonial, and all inquiries, by letter or in person, I will cheerfully answer. I do this that people who go on year after year paying out large sums of money to incompetent physicians and receive no cure, or even relief, or end in filling premature graves, as was nearly my case, may be induced to make a trial of the wonderful CUTICURA REMEDIES.

At the age of three months a rash made its appearance on my face. A physician was called, he said teething was the cause, he prescribed some cooling medicines, but the sores spread to my ears and head. Another M. D. was called. He professed to know all about the case called it "King's Evil," and prescribed gunpowder, brimstone and lard mixed into a salve, but the disease continued unabated; it spread to my arms and legs, till I was laid up entirely, and from continual sitting on the floor on a pillow my limbs contracted so that I lost all control of them, and was utterly helpless. My mother would have to lift me out and into bed. I could get around the house on my hands and feet, but I could not get my clothes on at all, and had to wear a sort of dressing gown. My hair had all matted down or fallen off, and my head, face and ears were one scab, and I had to have a towel on my head all the time in the summer to keep the flies off. My parents consulted a prominent physician and surgeon here in Chicago (the other physicians before mentioned were of Dundas and Hamilton, Canada), he said he could do nothing for me, but the chances were that I would grow out of it, or that it would strike inwardly and kill me in time. He wanted to cut the sores of my legs so that I could walk, but I would not let him, for if I did get better I would have no control of them.

The disease continued in this manner until I was seventeen years old, and in January, 1879, in the Chicago Tribune, I read an account of your medicines. They described my case so exactly that I thought, as a last resort, to give them a trial.

When I first applied the Cuticura, I was all raw and bleeding from scratching myself, but when I applied it I went to sleep almost immediately, something I had not done for years, the effect was so soothing.

The first morning after using it my flesh (I had no skin only on the end of my nose) was a pink color. Next day it was kind of white, and I could place my hand on the sores without it being painful. In about two weeks I could stand straight, but not walk. I was so weak, but my sores were nearly well. Then I commenced the use of the Cuticura Resolvent, and in three days I was worse than ever. I was one mass of pimples from the top of my head to the soles of my feet; to say they were painful would be no justice to the case. In from two to four days they burst and left a small scale, which dropped off and left the spot pure and the skin white, and as near as I can judge I was cured in about six to eight weeks, and up to this date (i. e. from January 1879 to January 1887) I have not been sick in any way, or have had the least signs of the disease reappearing on me. I have an excellent appetite, have the very best of health. My limbs are straight, supple and strong. I have been exposed to all sorts of weather, without the least signs of the disease yet. The only difference I find in myself is that my skin is finer softer, and not so liable to get chapped as is other persons.

No doubt many persons will not believe this almost improbable story, many will think it grossly exaggerated. I don't blame them a bit if they do, but to satisfy themselves they can call or write to me and find out if what I have written above is true or not. There are many persons who can testify to the wonderful cure I have received by your Cuticura Remedies.

Gentlemen, let me again thank you for my cure.
